What did you like most about this training?

The good spirit and collaboration
The professional nature as well as the friendly collaboration.
The possibilita to get to know all involved
Friendly atmosphere
discussion of ideas among participants
The way of organization of the activities in the mobility and the support of the Irish national agency
Getting to know the partners, their work, their passion and the positive contributions they will make to this wonderful project
Is important to understand the holistic approach with the young people problems
The distributions of the presentations according to the concept were really efficient and related to the main aim. Also many thanks to Betsy for great effort to host us in Dublin
Collaboration and good practices that psrticipants shared
The exchange of ideas

What aspects of the training could be improved?

Should be more time
More in-depth information.
Don't know
I cant think of anything
None
Everything was perfect
Keeping answers and questions a little more brief in order for every to be able to participate more
Some presentation
Actually nothing
Teamworks
Nothing

How do you hope to change your practice as a result of this training?

I will use the results to continue the project
All information was very useful and applicable to our specific interests.
Bettencourt involvment with young people
By gaving more information.
Improve the well-being of my students and help them feel better
I hope I will use the knowledge I learned during the mobility in my work with students
My project management skills were improved and, through talking about our work and passion, we found common points of interest and developed other project ideas which we are now working on. All together a great and valuable time spent
In my job, in my future and in other projects the materials can be reused
Apart from the general idea of the sessions of the training, we had more internal point of view in order to integrate outputs to the real life with youngsters.
I'm going to change my lifestyle and working habits on a daily basis
More aware of cultural differences
